

Will there be a livestream available?

Yes, livestream is available for a nominal fee to view the Solo Qualifiers (all locations). Each awards ceremony is streamed for free at www.isdtalive.com

Can I purchase admission tickets prior to the event?

All admission is purchased onsite and can be paid with cash or through Venmo.

Admission is required for everyone of school age+:

-$10 per person for a 1-day pass to all Solo Venues

-$15 per person for a multi-day pass to all Solo Venues

Will ISDTA state merchandise be available for purchase?

Merchandise will be available for order to pick up at State in Des Moines; however, on-site sales will not be available.

Is there a program for Solo Qualifiers?

There is no physical program. You can access the schedule at www.isdtalive.com or via QR code at the venues.

Will there be concessions available?

Concessions will be offered at each venue. No outside food or drinks are allowed as this is a fundraiser for our host schools.

When and how long are the award ceremonies

Live Stream for free at www.isdtalive.com

Solo award ceremonies will begin approximately 15 minutes after the last routine in that session, in the same venue you competed in. The ceremony will take approximately 15-20 minutes.

How will awards for Solo Qualifiers flow & what is next for Solo Finalists?

For each class, Division I Ratings will be awarded & then the top 10 scoring dance soloists and top 8 scoring color guard soloists will be named in alphabetical order. Finalists will compete in Des Moines Dec. 2-4. (No scores carry over & we will place 1st-10th for each class of dance and 1st-8th for each class of color guard)

Will there be digital recordings for sale?

For Solos, there is a designated seat at a table on the floor of each venue for someone to get a recording of their performances. Recordings will not be for sale of the qualifier round.