Athletes, Coaches, Families, and Supporters,

Welcome to the 2027 Iowa State Dance and Color Guard Solo Qualifiers! We are thrilled to have you with us in person and online to watch and cheer on the incredibly talented Iowa Dance and Color Guard members!

Soloists across the state have been preparing for months to compete at the highly anticipated competition. ISDTA competitions continue to lead as one of the best high school competitions in the nation.

October is a significant month for the ISDTA as more than 1,100 soloists from dance and color guard teams across the state descend on Pella and Newton school districts to compete in the State Solo Qualifiers, vying for the 146 finalist spots. Finalist will compete at the State Championships in December for their top placements.

We are happy to offer live stream for the entire competition for a nominal fee. To ensure that everyone can celebrate the successes of our competitors the awards ceremonies will be broadcast free. Check out our event website at www.isdtalive.com to learn more.

Countless memories have been created through team bonding, competition, education, community service and more. Congratulations to all the athletes, coaches, schools and supporting families on making 2027 competitions more thrilling than ever!

Proudly,

Andrea Dana

EVAN COONRAD - COLOR GUARD

With nearly three decades of experience in the color guard activity, Evan has established a longstanding presence in the Missouri color guard community as a performer and educator. A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Evan began his color guard journey in 1996, developing a passion for the art form that has continued to shape his professional career and commitment to the activity.

Evan attended Southwest Missouri State University from 2000 to 2005 as a Music Education major, where he performed with the Pride of SMSU Color Guard and served as captain from 2002 to 2005. During his collegiate career, he was also a member of the Pride of SMSU Winter Guard from 2000 to 2004.
